1. Sports Association Drča in collaboration with Bovec Community presents the 4th Bovec Outdoor Film Festival – BOFF. The festival takes place in Bovec, Slovenia, from December 28 to 30, 2010. Main goal and purpose of BOFF is presenting the sport, as well as making promotion for healthy life, social gathering and giving inspiration for creativity.

2. Entries can be submitted in the following five categories:

2.1. Sport and action (competition)

Sport as entertainment, way of life or achievement of personal limits are just a few variations of those movies. Presentation of disciplines, locations, ideology or the meaning of keeping in touch with sports is the main idea which authors usually use to create a film story. Regarding the topic of festival – Outdoor, we limited disciplines which will be screened on BOFF. There will be action from sports like; mountaineering, free-climbing, ice climbing, kayaking, mountain-biking, windsurfing, wave-surfing, kite-surfing, hang-gliding, paragliding, skydiving, B.A.S.E. jumping, caving, canyoning, skiing, snowboarding, telemark skiing, trekking, skating, diving, slack line...Stories mostly present an individual, his/her personality in a particular moment or period in time and the confrontation with a technical or natural problem from the site. That reflects as a discovery of actor's consciousness and his/her abilities and approach of achieving the limits set by all those parameters.

The implementation of such project demands from authors a lot of technical knowledge and feeling for art in photography.

2.2. Sport and action – short , movies shorter than 15 minutes (competition)

2.3. Nature and ecology (competition),

The present time becomes often too fast for a modern man to spend a day on a trip in forest or hiking in mountains to take a moment of beauties which they offer. Most of city residents are able to see such beautiful places or facts just via television or occasionally on such festivals. Thanks to eagerness and passion amongst authors who are dedicated to filming those scenes. The mission of those movies is creating a chance for everybody to discover excellent views, the rotation of seasons and other processes in nature which are on the contrary hidden. The third edition of BOFF will offer to public movies from; nature, maintenance and preservation, ecology and the living beings within them. Beauties of our planet will be presented in different ways; special attention will be set on actual problems, surrounding us and our landscape. Many of them have appeared because of our fault.

2.4. Era (no competition part)

Era is new part of BOFF festival, it is uncompetitive division. It will involve all movies older than call for entries for competition parts demand. Also there will be movies which were played already on older editions of BOFF festival. This part will also give some opportunity for movies from archive, which are important for that subject.

2.5. Special division - commercial application (no competition part)

In this part of BOFF we will show movies from uncompetitive class. Their fundamental goal is production of marketing. Such kind of advertising presentation is known for companies, agencies, associations or individuals in sport industry at most. The audience will have to watch some commercial applications which will be presented according to partners and organizers of BOFF.

3. The Festival is open to all film-makers: professional, free – lance or amateurs. Each competitor may enter with more works on different entry forms.

4. In recognition of the fact that film-makers often over-allocate financial resources for their projects, entry fees for the BOFF 2010 will be waived.
